GFWC/CT & KIND News

The Humane Society of the United States (HSUS) is the largest, most effective animal protection organization . backed by 11 million Americans and the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Established in 1954, HSUS seeks a humane sustainable world for all animals . a world that will also benefit people. The Society is America's mainstream force against cruelty, exploitation and neglect, and the most trusted voice extolling the humane-animal bond.

KIND News an award-winning classroom newspaper for grades K through 6, read by more than a million children in thousands of classrooms nationwide. It encourages good character in children with an emphasis on kindness to animals, respect for natural habitats, good citizenship, and peaceful conflict resolution.

KIND News is published at three reading levels:

- Primary Edition (grades K-2)
- Junior Edition (grades 3-4)
- Senior Edition (grades 5-6)

Since 1983 KIND News has been delivered to classrooms five times a year, September through May in bundles of 28 copies with a teacher's guide. It is a fun, cross-curricular teaching tool that gets kids into the reading/writing habit. Every issue includes fascinating facts about animals, tricky brainteasers, KIND Club Projects, and inspirational celebrity profiles. KIND News gives children a forum for expressing their opinions and creating original stories.

A $25.00 subscription requires little or no prep or class time. KIND News can be readily incorporated into math, science, reading, and language arts or simply handed out for students to enjoy during free time or at home. It covers many of the National Education Standards major subject areas. Includes access to reproducible worksheets/tips on helping animals, people and the environment.
